

Kristin Galui - Kindergarten

Kristin Galui is the kindergarten teacher at Immaculate Conception. Her philosophy is based on individuality. Each student is respected and appreciated as a unique child of God with various learning styles, personalities and abilities. She feels it is her responsibility, as a teacher to support her student's development through a variety of learning activities. The kindergarten program follows Michigan academic standards and assessment is an ongoing process.

From Wayne State University, Kristin received her BA in elementary education, with a ZA endorsement (early childhood). Currently she is working on her master's degree with a reading specialist endorsement at Saginaw State University. She enjoys teaching kindergarten and has taught preschool and other early childhood programs. In her leisure time, she enjoys spending time with her family and friends, reading and fitness.
