

Teaching Bio for Rose Gottler
Position: Music Teacher

Mrs. Rose Gottler holds a Master in the Art of Teaching degree from Marygrove College and a Bachelor's of Science in Elementary Education from Oakland University. She has additional endorsements to teach fine arts (music, art, and drama), language arts, and mathematics. Mrs. Gottler taught 5th grade from 2002-2006 at Holy Family Regional School in Rochester Hills, MI. She is a certified catechist through the Archdiocese of Detroit and volunteered as a 4th grade catechist for one year and a 6th grade catechist for two years at Immaculate Conception Parish. Mrs. Gottler has also been working with students as a K-12 private tutor for the past 14 years. She has been a cantor and choir member at Immaculate Conception Parish for 11 years and she is in her fourth year as music teacher at Immaculate Conception School.

Mrs. Gottler's believes that all children are unique, intelligent, and gifted. As an educator, it is important to her that she is able to guide her students to reach their potential and achieve their goals in whatever subject she is teaching. She prepares engaging lessons for her students and provides opportunities for individualized and cooperative learning. She believes students learn best in an environment that is safe and structured. She values the use of technology in her instruction and in student learning activities. She hopes to inspire her students to become life-long learners.

Mrs. Gottler loves to spend time with her husband and four daughters. The Gottler family enjoys going on road trips together and doing outdoor activities such as hiking, biking, and searching for waterfalls. In her spare time, Mrs. Gottler enjoys creating scrapbooks, crocheting, swimming, Zumba, singing, and leading two Girl Scout troops.